HISTORY AND FOCUS

The Hispanic Executive Society International (HESI), is an IRS approved non-profit 501(c 6) organization founded on March 15, 2008 by Joe Ramirez, a retired Human Resource executive who has been a resident of in Kingwood since 1982.

The chapter organization's officers and member's are business owners, professionals, housewives, business executives, educators, and leaders within various sectors of the Kingwood, Humble, Porter and Atascocita, TX and North Harris county area.

HESI members are very passionate about improving and enhancing the lives of children, students and adults and develop platforms to help them develop their full potential. HESI's primary focus is with Public and Private Schools, and Colleges. The initiative that we promote result in Career Development, Leadership, and Executive Development. Additionally, a segment is dedicated to humanitarian imitatives that involve Hispanics/Latinos that are living under the poverty wage. .Joe Ramirez-HESI

HESI EXECUTIVE STAFF

HESI has a professional staff of Officers, a Board of Directors, and Committees. It's leadership is comprised of successful people who devise it's strategy and provide a hands-on approach to the academic and Hispanic community's needs. The Hispanic Executive Society has several partnerships with organizations & companies that leverage existing resources, such as Lone Star College Kingwood & North Harris campuses, Humble Independent School District, University of Houston, Small Business Administration, and the newly formed Northeast Chamber of Commerce.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

HESI has monthly meetings which include a reception and business meeting and guest speaker who is a leader in his/her field of endeavor. Also, events are held during the year that focus on HESI'S values in Education, Career Development, and fundraising for humanitarian activities. Annually, a career day events are held at local area Colleges and High Schools through HSSI Chapters focused on student activity . Several events during the year are the "Hispanic Heritage Month Fiesta" and the "Cinco de Mayo Celebration" events are designed to promote a sense of pride and assimilation into the USA mainstream. The last event of the year, is a holiday gala that honors the Hispanic Man of the Year and Hispanic Women of the year and Hispanic Business Executive of the Year.

HESI VISION & PURPOSE

HESI is unique from the traditional Hispanic outreach organization, in that it is able to provide more personal attention to adult and students who reside in the community, where the live and work. HESI establishes strong relationships with Schools, Colleges, and Public Services of City, State and Federal Governments to assure compliance of issues that impact the Hispanic Community that impact their family as a whole. Additionally HESI provides entrepreneurship, networking opportunities and business development programs at the local community level, that enhance their success within the community
